

CITY OF MORENO VALLEY NOTICE OF OPENINGS EMERGING LEADERS COUNCIL

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City of Moreno Valley is now accepting applications for the Emerging Leaders Council (ELC). The appointees shall be residents of the City of Moreno Valley at the time of appointment and throughout their incumbencies and will serve for designated terms. In addition, the appointees shall attend at least one meeting prior to the appointment. All ELC members shall be elementary school, high school, or college students aged 14-20. Voting Members will receive stipends for attending meetings.

The following thirty-eight positions need to be filled:

*Six Voting Members with Term
Expirations to be Determined*

*Two Alternate Members with Term
Expirations to be Determined*

*Thirty Non-Voting Members At-large with Term
Expirations to be Determined*

The purpose of the Emerging Leaders Council is to identify elementary school, high school or college students with a desire and potential to become community leaders, educate and engage young adults in local government, and focus efforts on service to the Moreno Valley community. The Emerging Leaders Council was established as a standing committee with two-year terms by Resolution 2014-30. Resolution No. 2021-01 modified the existing provisions governing the Emerging Leaders Council.

Meetings are scheduled on the fourth Monday of each month at 6:00 p.m., City Hall - Council Chamber, 14177 Frederick St.

The City Council encourages all students who meet the qualifications to apply for these positions. Applications are available on the City Web site at <http://www.moval.org/parks-comm-svc/program-elc.html>. For further information, please call 951.413.3280.

Applications will be accepted in the Parks & Community Services Department until April 22, 2021.
